NEW HAVEN TRAIN CRASH

Woman Who Accused Pastor Is Called Impostor PONZI FACES NEW TRIAL OCT. 23

STORY IN DIVORCE CASE IS IGNORED

Workman's Charges Are Dismissed and Wife Is Given a Decree

Following disclosures of an alleged frame-up made in the Suffolk divorce court today by Judge Fox, Mrs. Clara B. Workman was granted a decree nisi in her action for divorce against William R. Workman.

Mr. Workman's cross petition, alleging infidelity, was dismissed. Mrs. Workman was granted custody of her two children and alimony of $15 a week.

The Rev. Ralph Bray, former pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church at Auburn, N. Y., mentioned as co-respondent by Workman, was exonerated.

Mrs. Martha Ebeli Darling, principal witness for Mr. Workman, was branded an impostor and perjurer. She had testified yesterday concerning alleged misconduct between Mr. Workman and the respondent.

When court opened today Mr. J. C. Burke, attorney for Mr. Workman, announced that he desired to withdraw as counsel. He gave as his reason his belief that Mrs. Darling had faked in her testimony yesterday. He said that after her testimony, he said that she told of seeing the Rev. Mr. Bray, partially clothed, being Mr. Workman in his arms, he suggested her to his office for a conference. During this conference, he said, he became convinced that Mrs. Darling was lying.

William P. Brady, attorney for the Rev. Mr. Bray, intimated that the witness who posed as Mrs. Darling was not Mrs. Darling.

He said he had received a telegram from an attorney in Auburn, Conn. on Page 2, Column 7.

PROTESTS BAN ON DEAF AUTOISTS

Members of the Speech Readers' Guild, representing the deaf citizens of Boston, denounce the action of the conference of the Motor Vehicle Administrators, which went on record as opposed to granting auto licenses to deaf persons.

Mildred Kennedy, president of the Guild, today issued a statement calling the act one of "shocking injustice and evident absurdity, since it was done behind closed doors without the deaf nor their friends could protest."

Miss Kennedy contends that only the eyes are of vital necessity in driving. "The present safety equipment," she says, "proves that hearing is not needed in driving motor conveyances. Are not the deaf tax-paying citizens? Are they not entitled to the use of public highways? Why should there be any thought of prohibiting the granting of licenses to any deaf man or woman?"

B. & M. SEEKS MERGER WITH SUBSIDIARIES

Washington, Oct. 10.—The Boston & Maine railroad filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today a petition for permission to merge completely in its own corporate organization several subsidiary companies which it now controls in ownership and operation. These companies are the Sullivan County railroad, Vermont Valley railroad, Barre & Chelsea, Montpelier & Wells, and York Harbor & Beach.

No prisoners escaped. The casualties were tabulated as follows: Killed—One Free State soldier and one prisoner; wounded, five Free State soldiers and ten prisoners. Two of the injured subsequently died.

REVOLT IN DUBLIN JAIL

Many Persons Shot in Street Battles Following Attempt to Free Prisoners

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Dublin, Oct. 10.—Many persons were shot "some killed and some wounded—in rioting and ambush attacks, which raged here today in an attempt to liberate the 200 or more Republicans interned in Mountjoy Prison.

LED BY O'CONNOR.

Fighting in Mountjoy prison reached great violence and a revised list put the casualties at seventeen. The attempt to break to freedom was led by Robert O'Connell, formerly commander in chief of the Republican irregular army.

Two land mines and bombs were discovered in O'Connell's cell.

At a prearranged signal, the Republicans swarmed from their cells led by O'Connell. The guards were startled and almost all were overpowered before the troops reached the scene.

Then rifles and pistols began to crack. Above the din of rifle fire could be heard the voice of O'Connell crying his men on.

There was a large force of irregulars waiting outside the prison to assist, but the prison guards opened fire and were assisted by Free State soldiers, who were rushed up in airplanes cars. The crowd was dispersed with difficulty.

Rioting again broke out in the jail and was still continuing at a late hour. The ring leaders were ordered put to iron.

No prisoners escaped. The casualties were tabulated as follows: Killed—One Free State soldier and one prisoner; wounded, five Free State soldiers and ten prisoners. Two of the injured subsequently died.

U. S. Business Best in 2 Years

By International News Service. Washington, Oct. 10.—American industry is now making up the lost production record made since the end of depression two years ago, it was shown by a new business survey issued today by the Department of Commerce.

Increased output is general among all industries, the reports said. Factory employment is larger than at the end of 1929, which is held to be a chief factor in a more even distribution of buying power.

FRAT MEN OF TUFTS COME TO GRIEF

Rambling along, singing and cheering, pushing a wheelbarrow filled with farm produce, rural mail boxes, street and railroad signs and the family wash from several imminent Burlington households, nine Tufts College students were rounded up by the Winchester police, following complaints from enraged Burlington residents.

At the Winchester police station the nine youths said they had been given the wheelbarrow, taken out into Burlington and told to "fill 'er up" with farm stuff and anything they could "dig" along the route, all part of the initiation into a "Tufts fraternity."

When the Winchester police interrupted the party, the youths were going good. They had a supply of pumpkins, three rural delivery letter boxes, several signs, part of an old wagon, the whole covered by a newly washed sheet from a line.

The names of the students were taken. The police and Tufts College officials are investigating the episode. In the meantime the pushed wheelbarrow and contents remain at the police station.

CREWS OF 2 TRAINS INJURED

Engines and Coaches Derailed When a Passenger Train Sideswiped Freight

New York, Oct. 10.—Two electrically propelled engines, a mail car, a baggage car and one passenger coach were derailed today at Cos Cob, Ct., when an outboard freight train on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad was side-swiped by a passenger train as the freight was pulling out of a side track.

Members of the engine crew of both trains were slightly injured, but no one was seriously hurt. The passenger train was a local, running between New York and Springfield. Both east-bound tracks of the railroad at Cos Cob were blocked by the wreck for several hours.

SCORES AUTOIST ON TEACHER'S COMPLAINT

"If he had hit one of the children I would not blame the father if he thrashed him within an inch of his life," Judge Sullivan said this in a Charleston Court today in finding Fred Kleisad of Park street, Bedford, guilty of dangerous motor driving.

Kleisad received a two week suspended sentence and a year's probation. The complaint was Miss Bernicea Driscoll, first grade teacher in the Benjamin F. Tovel school, Cheltenham. On September 29, as pupils were coming from the school, she stepped into the street and signaled traffic to stop, but Kleisad disregarded her signal and narrowly missed two little girls.

DOCTOR GETS JAIL

WIZARD IS ACCUSED OF THEFT

Specifications Filed by the Attorney-General for Trial on State's Charges

Charles (Wizard) Ponzi, now serving a five-year federal term in Plymouth jail, will go to trial in the State courts Monday, October 23.

That date was set today for the trial in Suffolk Court of Ponzi and others indicted with him for larceny and conspiracy to defraud investors.

The "Wizard" was before the court September 21, which had been fixed as trial date. But he asked that Attorney-General J. Weston Allen be directed to furnish specifications of the charges against him. Judge Rice held that this request was reasonable and directed the attorney-general to specify.

SPECIFICATIONS FILED

This action caused the trial to be postponed. The specifications were filed today by Assistant Attorney-General Hurwin and the new trial date was fixed.

As a part of the conspiracy, by which it is claimed Ponzi defrauded investors the Attorney-General says the Ponzi also represented that he was carrying on a large and profitable business in foreign exchange and International Reply Coupons; that he was paying 10 per cent. in Turn Over.

Today
Cheap Bonds
Fine Oil Stocks
Greetings to Osman
Deadliest Poison

By Arthur Brisbane
OCTOBER 10, 1922, by six companies.
The government is selling five hundred millions of long-term bonds, paying 4 1/2 per cent interest. Purchasers yesterday paid 50 cents above par. Before the war they would gladly have paid $30 above par for such a bond. Times change. So does Uncle Sam's credit—after getting mixed up with Europe.

Other gentlemen in Wall Street, the oil men, have been having a pleasant time. One oil company announced a dividend of 200 per cent. In stock. It was said: "This stock dividend will be paid out now that the soldiers' bonus is disposed of."
"Disposed of" is the correct word. One oil stock has gone up $500 a share recently. They are all jumping—the good ones. But be careful how you buy oil stocks offered you by mail with bright promises. You don't find anyone forcing Standard Oil stock upon you.

Osman, founder of the great Ottoman empire—named for him and now brought back to life by Kemal Pasha—has a fine tomb at Bursa. There the Parliament of the new Ottoman empire has deposited a humble prayer and petition, which, abbreviated, says: "Oh, mighty dead, the prayers from the minaret and the great mosque at Adrianople are stifled with the sounds of Christian bells. Be tranquil, mighty spirit, we will save them."
That's probably comforting to Osman, son of a Turkman chief, dead 600 years ago, but still living in the fighting power of the Turks.

Empires go down, and come up again. Three now are down, and seem down forever—Russia, Austria, Germany.
The German mark fell to low yesterday that you could buy thirty marks for one cent, three thousand for a dollar. Once $100 marks made a dollar, but hidden away in the brain of some young German student, an ambitious peasant, is the power that will bring up the old German empire from its humiliation, as Kemal, Turk or Jew, whichever he may be, has brought up the empire of Osman.

James, who owns a great deal of Germany, much of Austria and Russia, says the way to bring the German back is for the men to work ten hours a day. Kemal's plan was to fight twelve hours a day and then a little more at night. The thing can be done both ways.

Possibilities of condensation are great beyond comprehension. American chemists have a poison gas so deadly that a small amount dropped from a flying machine would destroy every life in the greatest city.

In some human brain a particle of matter no bigger than a drop of ink can produce an idea that will conquer the world.
And all that seems coarse, common, compared with the poison of a maniac's intellect. Two professors of Harvard say that one millionth part of one-half a thimble of that poison would be.

WIFE IN FIGHT FOR DIVORCE ACCUSED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Witness Says He Saw Dr. C. C. Mackey in Chamber With Another Woman

Mrs. Irene A. Mackey was granted a divorce decree nisi from Dr. Charles C. Mackey of East Broadway, South Boston, by Judge White in Suffolk Probate Court today. The suit was uncontested.

In her declaration, Mrs. Mackey, alleging statutory grounds against her husband, named Mrs. Isabel Hurl of South Boston and another woman living in South Boston and Hayside.

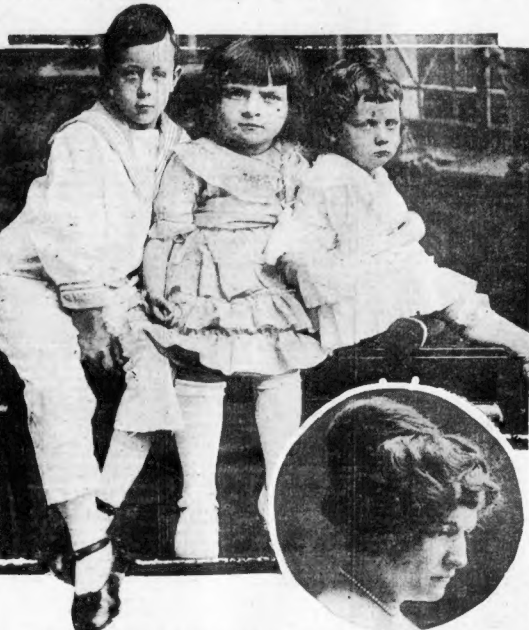

The chief witness for Mrs. Mackey was William J. Shine. He testified that on October 11, 1919, he found Dr. Mackey and Isabel Hurl in a chamber in the house of Mrs. Josephine Bucci at South Linn.

John White, under advice from the physician is to pay Mrs. Mackey the amount of alimony which the physician is to pay Mrs. Mackey.

Mrs. Mackey filed her divorce suit about a month ago. At that time Dr. Mackey, World War veteran and official physician to South Boston Post, American Legion, was quoted as saying that it was "all a mistake" and that he and his wife were eager to return to each other.

When this remark was repeated to Mrs. Mackey she said: "Well, I have not decided whether or not I want the divorce. I may not press it. But relations between the doctor and myself would have to alter remarkably before I could decide to forgive his disgraceful treatment of me during our married life. On the other hand, I am sure that the physician had made a mistake between us possible."

Isabel Hurl, married and mother of four children, emphatically denied at the time the divorce suit became known that there had ever been the least impropriety between herself and Dr. Mackey, although she did say that the physician had made advances toward her.

MRS. ISABEL HURL AND HER THREE CHILDREN
In Divorce Court today she was accused by Mrs. Irene Mackey with being too friendly with her husband, a prominent South Boston doctor. Mrs. Mackey won her suit. Mrs. Hurl denied the allegations brought against her in the case.

'CUT RED TAPE, SEND US COAL, WIRES CURLEY'

In a telegram sent to Congressman Peter V. Tague at Washington, Mayor Curley today demanded that red tape be slanted to get the permit for unloading fuel at Charlestown Navy Yard.

The mayor said: "Telegrams received informing me approval of Interstate Commerce Commission and Federal Fuel Administration is necessary to secure permit for unloading fuel at Charlestown Navy Yard. In view of an emergency of naval vessels for preservation of peace in Turkey, I beg you will direct attention of leaders of Republican party from Massachusetts in Washington to the necessity for immediate slanting of red tape as the Christian population of Massachusetts may receive equal consideration. As there is little difference between freezing to death in Massachusetts and being executed in Turkey. If anything, the latter is preferable, as the death is more speedy."

"Boston wants the right to use Charlestown Navy Yard and wants it now, because they are now in a hurry. If the people are to be saved from freezing this winter, a condition for which the Republican party in Washington are responsible."

La Touraine, Oldest Liner, Making Last Trip

New York, Oct. 10.—La Touraine, oldest passenger ship plying between France and the United States, starts on her last trip tomorrow when she sails from her North River berth.

The French line has decided to dispose of the thirty-year-old vessel on arrival in Havre.

La Touraine has crossed the Atlantic more times than any other passenger vessel afloat. She has the most expert cocktail mixer among passenger ships.

The liner was built in 1892, and was considered the most luxurious steamer afloat until the advent of the Lusitania and Mauretania in 1907.

COCA COLA KING JETS BEAUTY

Copyright, 1922, by International News Service. Copyright, 1922, by the Georgian Company.

Atlanta, Oct. 10.—Declaring she had been insulted and humiliated by charges that her character was not unquestionable, Mrs. Onexima De Bouchelle, young New Orleans beauty, announced here today her engagement to Asa G. Candier, aged Atlanta "Coca Cola King," had been irrevocably broken and that she intended to resort to legal weapons to defend her good name.

In a long, formal statement, Mrs. De Bouchelle, who has been practically inaccessible since announcement was made some time ago of the engagement, said that Candier himself had told her he had read reports that she had invited two men to visit her at an Atlanta hotel several years ago.

REFUSED TO NAME MEN.

Yesterday, Mrs. De Bouchelle told newspaper men she and Asa Candier met. Candier took with him his son, Asa Candier, Jr. She asked him to name the names of persons responsible for the reports and he refused to give them. Last night, she said, Candier had pleaded with her to go away from Atlanta, but she declined.

De Bouchelle asserted her intention to force Candier to endow a home for children in New Orleans and to force him and his brother, Judge John Candier, to publicly answer the falseness of statements she said have been circulated regarding her reputation. No mention was made of a suit for money.

In her statement here Mrs. De Bouchelle said:

"Mr. Candier and I were to have been married September 20."

"September 15, he informed me that it would not be fair to marry me and bring me where reports had been made against me."

"I met Mr. Candier at the Confederate reunion in New Orleans three or four years ago, where I was chaperoned generally."

"The hideous slander and Mr. Candier's conduct, due and I am saying that my future is ruined have broken my heart, but my will is not broken. I have faith that God will give me strength to defend myself."

"You really should use Sylpho-Nathol"

"Gladys Lodge is such a conservative little body. When she prunes anything, you know it's good."

"Is Sylpho-Nathol dependable?" she said, when I asked her. "My dear! I should say it is. I know, because I felt just as you do about disinfectants. Most of them smell so terrible, or else you have to be a regular chemist to mix them properly. But Sylpho-Nathol is so very different. It's so pleasant to use, so safe, so easy to prepare."

"Gladys told me how terribly her pink dress had smelled, before she used Sylpho-Nathol, and how quickly Sylpho-Nathol had remedied matters. She told me of the many other uses she has found for it. How she uses it in the mop-water every day, how she keeps the garbage cans sweet and clean and free from flies, how she uses it as a sanitary safeguard around bathroom fixtures and as a regular flush for the toilet bowl; how she sprinkles it in the cellar and attic corners."

"She was so enthusiastic that I showed the grocer right away how to use a bottle in my order. Now, too, use Sylpho-Nathol just as regularly as Gladys—and I am just as enthusiastic. If you've not already done so, you should order a bottle of Sylpho-Nathol right this minute."

Thousands of New England housekeepers are telling each other about the effective way in which Sylpho-Nathol destroys germs and disperses unpleasant odors. They say it is times stronger than carbolic acid, Sylpho-Nathol is as safe to use as the housewife's own soap, it is so easy to use, it is so friendly, refreshing odor doesn't linger. Just a tablespoonful in a pail of warm water makes a clean-smelling, perfectly sanitary solution that's ready for immediate use.

Sylpho-Nathol comes in four handy sizes, 15c, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Most good grocers and druggists have it. If yours hasn't, he can get it easily. Just ask for it by the name—Sylpho-Nathol.

PEACE OR WAR UP TO TURKS, SAYS BRITAIN

Constantinople, Oct. 10 (By the Associated Press).—The signing of the protocol armistice at Mudania is expected to take place this afternoon, according to an announcement by the Hovas Agency, the semi-official French news organization.

Lieutenant-General Harrington and his staff, arrived here on the Iron Duke at 145 this morning.

When met at the pier by the correspondent General Harrington said: "The convention was submitted to the Nationalists last evening is Great Britain's last word. It now rests with Ankara whether the world shall have peace or war."

"We have seen the extremity of concessions."

"The revised armistice convention is a gratifying manifestation of allied solidarity in war or peace. It is my earnest hope that the Turks will appreciate the liberality of our terms. If they reject them, we are prepared for all eventualities."

Turks Given Until 5 P. M. Today to Sign

Mudania, Oct. 10 (By the Associated Press).—The allied generals drew their final armistice convention here last evening and submitted it to Ismet Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist representative. The armistice was given until 5 p. m. today to accept or reject it.

General Harrington, British commander-in-chief and colleague for the allied forces, said that the convention was a gratifying manifestation of allied solidarity in war or peace. It is my earnest hope that the Turks will appreciate the liberality of our terms. If they reject them, we are prepared for all eventualities.

"That the Greek evacuation of Thrace shall be carried out within a few days."

"That the Greek civil authorities, including the gendarmerie, shall be withdrawn as soon as possible."

"That as the Greek authorities withdraw, the civil powers will be handed over to the allied authorities, who will transmit them to the Turkish authorities on the same day."

"That this transfer shall be wholly concluded throughout eastern Thrace within a minimum period of thirty days after the evacuation of the Greek troops has been completed."

"That the civil authorities of the Ankara government shall be accompanied by such forces of the Nationalist Gendarmerie as are strictly necessary for the maintenance of law and order and local security. The total strength shall be left to the discretion of the Nationalists, subject to approval by the Allies."

Five American Women Direct Greek Relief

Paris, Oct. 10 (By the Associated Press).—The headquarters of the American Committee on Relief in the Near East says "personal service bureaus" have been established in the principal centers where the refugees from Smyrna are now concentrated and R. H. Rogers of Philadelphia has returned to the capital after conducting the work of organization.

The bureau at Athens is in charge of Anna Dignandis of Columbus, O.; Myriam, Byron Macdonald of Ironton, Pa.; Salome, Mary L. Harris of New York; Robinson, Stephen Lowe of St. Louis; Chis, Mabel Elliott of Port Worth, Texas; and Mrs. Bertell Anderson of Jacksonville, Fla.

The bureaus are organized, it is announced, to accept individual remittances for the Greek refugees from their friends in America to any point in Greece, Macedonia, Thrace or the Aegean Islands.

Delivery of the remittances to the beneficiaries will not be guaranteed within a specified time, as money may be needed to locate them in some places but assistance is being received from the Greek government and the American consular officers, and the refugees themselves are facilitating the work effectively.

Her hair was hopeless

—but this simple treatment made her charming

HER hair was dull and lifeless, impossible to arrange, and worst of all—full of dandruff. And hard as she tried, she never could make herself really attractive.

So she went to a hairdresser's and there she learned a wonderful secret—and that secret brought out loveliness she never knew she possessed. Her friends soon noticed the great change in her appearance. Now you, too, can use that secret at home.

The hairdresser's treatment

These simple directions will change your whole appearance too—Apply Wildroot Liquid Shampoo (cocoanut oil base). Wash hair, using rinsing three or four times. After drying, massage Wildroot Hair Tonic into the roots of the hair with the finger tips.

POOR, BUT HE HAD A DOG—35 OF THEM

Attorneys, Oct. 10.—Two poor to support his family, David A. Cooper sustained Judge Huxley by saying he had thirty-five dogs which he housed in a dog house against public health regulations. Because of Cooper that proper care of his family was of more importance than the dogs, the judge placed his case on file after Cooper paid costs of $5.

Japanese Makes Good on Arms Treaties

By International News Service. Washington, Oct. 10.—Official documents of ratification of the arms conference treaties are en route to the Japanese embassy in Tokyo, it was learned officially today.

Charge d'Affaires Saburi of the Japanese embassy here has been given full authority to exchange ratifications upon receipt of the documents.

The treaties are to become effective upon exchange of ratification by all the signatory powers, the exchange to take place at Washington.

SECOND TO RATIFY.

Except for the United States, Japan was the first nation to ratify the treaties, having been ahead of Great Britain and China, the only other countries to have ratified.

Apprehension felt here at the delay by France and Italy in ratifying the treaties was allayed when it was also learned in Tokyo. A move most is on foot in Japan to rewrite the naval treaty and the so-called four-power Pacific treaty, limiting them to the United States, Great Britain and Japan. This would mean exclusion of France and Italy from the naval treaty and exclusion of France from the four-power pact.

Insistence as France was not included in the original plan for the four-power treaty and was later added to the treaty by the Japanese. It is believed the treaty would be equally effective without France.

HARDING ANNOYED.

As for the naval treaty, it is pointed out, the original plan, suggested by Senator Borah, provided for a reduction of naval armaments by the United States, Great Britain and Japan only. While President Harding and Secretary Hughes were last evening at the Boston Athletic Association by Columbia & McElbath, Inc., well-known Boston Ford dealers. It was attended by the sales force and representatives from the Ford plant. Addresses were made by Mr. Crampton and Mr. Griffith, manager of sales, contemplating the employees for their record-making business of the past year and outlining for the future one of the most novel sales contests ever conducted. Mr. Keating, representative of the Ford Motor Company, gave an interesting talk on the present production methods of the Detroit factory.

FORMER WIFE OF GOULD IS FREE AGAIN

Park, Oct. 10 (By the Associated Press).—The divorce was registered today of the Princess Viora, formerly Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould, of New York City from Prince Hourmoude Viora of Albania.

The record shows that the divorce was granted at the wife's request, and that the Prince did not appear to contest the suit.

Princess Viora's maiden name was Helen Kelly. Her first husband was Frank J. Gould of New York, from whom she was divorced in 1909. Gould then married Edith Kelly, an English actress. Helen Kelly Gould's second husband, Prince Hourmoude Viora, whom she married in July, 1910, died in 1914. She married Prince Viora on June 20, 1917.

PIATT ANDREW GETS SPEED SUMMONS

Congressman A. Piatt Andrew of Gloucester has been summoned to appear in the Lynn district court to answer to a charge of speeding on Thursday.

Congressman Andrew, who won a victory in the last congressional election, is embroiled with the speed issue. A short while ago he was cited for speeding at a New York dock, but the summons had been nullified up. Colonel Andrew swung himself aboard the vessel on a chain trawler to a freight barge, barely escaping landing in the water.

WATSON'S WIDOW TO FIGHT WILL

Athens, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Watson, widow of Senator Thomas Watson, threatened to contest his will which when filed disclosed he had bequeathed $10 acres of valuable farming land, life use of a cottage and a week for life to Mrs. Alice L. Watson, his housekeeper and associate in the publication of his weekly newspaper, the Columbia Sentinel.

The estate, valued at $150,000, divided between his widow, two grandchildren, his sister and Mrs. Lytle. Mrs. Watson receives a life interest in the residuary estate. Mrs. Watson had been separated from her husband since January.

FEAR MISSING G.O.P., TO BEAT KLAN, BACKS A DEMOCRAT

Stoughton, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Cora B. Porter of No. 147 Seaver street, declared today she believed her missing fifteen-year-old daughter, Hazel, had been "run in" by a gang. The mother expressed fear, too, that the girl had fallen into the hands of "dope" users.

Stoughton policeman, guided by fifteen-year-old Hazel E. Porter, who was on the automobile ride Sunday which ended in Hazel's disappearance, went to a Monmouth cottage, where they learned the name of a Brockton business man, whom they questioned. This man denied knowing anything about the auto ride. But he was identified by Winifred as the driver of the car. The police may be admitted this finally, but denied knowing the other two men or the young woman who was with them when they picked up the two Stoughton girls. The police hint that a warrant may be issued.

GIRL TELLS STORY. Winifred Dunn's story is this: "Hazel asked me Sunday if I wanted to go riding with friends of hers. I agreed. That afternoon, as we were walking along Seaver street, a touring car containing three men and a young woman, drove up. They asked us to ride. We got in. They drove to a house on Quincy street, Brockton. Then we drove to Monmouth and stopped at a cottage till about 9. We got back to my house at 10 o'clock. I got out. I haven't seen Hazel since."

AIDED WIDOWED MOTHER. The missing girl is five feet eight inches tall and weighs 145 pounds. She has dark brown hair and brown eyes. On the car ride she wore a blue serge dress with white collar, blue coat and pale blue hat. She has been working at the Mansfield Philanthropic Company's factory, Canton, her wages being her widowed mother to keep the family of four.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Stirred by repeated outrages of the Ku Klux Klan in Texas, the Harding administration has determined to force a showdown on the issue of the Klan's "invisible government."

This decision reveals a situation unique in the annals of American political history. It means a Republican administration will support the candidacy of an independent Democrat for the United States Senate. He is George E. B. Peck of Houston, anti-Klan Klan candidate. Peck is out to end the "hooded horror" of the Klan in Texas, where repeated outrages, including the lynchings and feathering of women, are regarded as threatening the sovereignty of the Federal government.

CONFER WITH HARDING.

The decision to support Peck was reached at a White House conference of President Harding, Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary of War Weeks and R. B. Creager of Brownsville. Republican State Chairman and close friend of the President.

More than 100 recent outrages on the part of the Klan, and its women's auxiliary, known as the "Invisible Empire," moved Chairman Creager and other Republican leaders to come to Washington to appeal for support in opposing the Senate candidacy of E. B. Peck. He is known as the "Invisible Eye."

HACKED BY LEADERS. In endorsing Peck, Republican leaders here believe Mayfield's support will be split, permitting Peck to capture the election. Chairman Creager is understood to return to Texas with letters of endorsement for Peck from John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National Committee; Cabinet members and other high officials of the Harding administration.

Hub Police Ordered to Get Hair Cut Before Parade

Come now another etiquette for Boston's policemen.

Some months ago a general order mentioned the advantages of washing the neck.

A little later another order pointed out that good policemen don't let their soup drip down their uniforms while eating.

Now Commissioner Wilson has ordered all officers to get a shave and a hair cut. This is requested as a preparatory step for the police parade on Columbus Day.

"DR." SHEPARD IS REFUSED LICENSE

At a private hearing before the State Board of Registration, at the State House, Philip Shepard was refused a certificate of registration and a license to practice medicine in this State. The refusal of the board to grant him a license, which was revoked last May, followed complaints of members of the Medical Association against the Abrams method of diagnosis by vibratory resistance.

Doctor Abrams was present at the hearing, but, according to members of the board, refused to demonstrate his method of shaking blood test.
